ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 17th day of November, 2007)

1. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the prayer sought for in this petition has already been satisfied as the petitioner was permitted to appear in the course and thereafter, the petitioner has passed out B.Ed training course, and the result has also been declared.

2. The petitioner was admitted on the strength of order dated 06.12.2001, provisionally. The petitioner had completed her B.Ed course and the result thereof has been declared. The petitioner has been held as 'Pass'. Thus, at this stage, no purpose would be served if the case is considered on merit. Setting aside the B.Ed examination certificate, which the petitioner has obtained, would be counter-productive. Therefore, the admission granted to the petitioner provisionally, be treated as proper admission to the course and consequential effects be given to the result of the B.Ed examination course.

3. In view of foregoing, the petition stands disposed of. No order as to costs.

4. Consequently, M(W)P No. 257/2001, application for interim order, also stands disposed of.
